

MEALS ON WHEELS

“The Voluntary Caring Service”

P.O. Box 266

Cairns 4870

“She who is on duty for the day will prepare a dinner and carry it to the sick. On arrival, she will greet them cheerfully. . . She will put soup in a bowl. . . She will endeavour to cheer the sick person . . . She will go off to find another whom she will treat in the same fashion”.

We could be forgiven for thinking that the above quotation came from a modern day Meals on Wheels training manual, but they are the words of Vincent de Paul to his volunteers, in 1646.

Limited Government funding for Meals on Wheels means increasing reliance upon the help of many generous volunteers, monetary donations and also benefactors to assist its role. Bequests are a tangible way of ensuring continuance of quality care for the frail aged and younger disabled, thus enabling them to reside for as long as possible where they are happiest—in their own homes.
